ANV International M&A Insurance

ANV is a 'Managing General Agent' (MGA) that underwrites on behalf of a panel of insurers comprised of many Lloyd's Syndicates as well as company market capacity from the AmTrust Group and Zurich. ANV is part of the AmTrust Group, a multinational financial services group with its headquarters in New York.

Our Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A) Insurance Team provides a range of bespoke insurance solutions to parties involved in the sale and purchase of companies, businesses or assets (including real estate). Since 2013 we have provided insurance to facilitate hundreds of transactions across the world, from the smallest domestic deals to the largest cross-border acquisitions. While most of our policies provide warranty and indemnity (W&I) insurance for buyers to cover unexpected transaction liabilities, ANV can also provide seller's W&I insurance, tailored tax liability insurance and contingent risk insurance for known issues identified during the due diligence process.

M&A Insurance has become firmly established as a risk management tool for both private equity investors and the corporate buyer. Deal parties and their advisers are increasingly aware of the versatility of the product to structure transactions and mitigate the associated financial risks.
